Perhaps Mr. Cahoon wishes now that he had been more merciful in joshing Mr. Hinkle.

Too many people spend their time telling what they think, instead of looking around for something to think about.

Judge Nisbet, the Republican candidate, seems to be starting out for an active campaign. The kind of cigars he gives out are fifteen-centers.

The Democratic candidate for delegate to congress has spent a lifetime in New Mexico, while the Republican candidate has never established a home in the Territory.

The old standpatters of the Republican party in Chaves county have given way to the advancement of the "Tenderfoot" and the enthronement of "Hawkeye" shrewdness. Verily 'tis a campaign of unfathomable mysteries.

The Artesia Advocate must have swallowed the bait all right on that minstrel show. The Record's reporter attended one performance in Roswell, and says he couldn't resist the temptation to spit on the bait a little in the hope of catching other suckers. Not knowing when we should have another show, he thought it well for everybody to see this one and then die in peace in case another never came.

The Democratic party of the Territory of New Mexico showed very plainly its appreciation of the efforts of Governor Hagerman to give the people of the Territory an honest and economical administration in its endorsement of him in the convention last week. Governor Hagerman deserves and is getting the support of the honest people of the Territory, if he is not getting the support of the grafters.—Santa Fe Eagle.

"The Roswell Record is waiting for some one to tell it how to make up its mind before it says anything about the penitentiary report.—Las Vegas Optic.

In the meantime, however, the Record published the report so that its readers might make up their minds to suit themselves. If the Optic would publish the report, perhaps its opinion would then seem of less importance.

In its haste to condemn the Democratic candidate for delegate to congress, the Santa Fe New Mexican made two blunders—not purposely of course, for a Republican paper could not tell a lie, of course not. In one place it refers to Larrazolo running for delegate in 1902, and in another place states that he was defeated by 10,000 votes. Larrazolo ran for delegate in 1900, but did not run in 1902—and he was defeated in 1900 by only 3,700, the total vote being: Rodey, 21,557; Larrazolo, 17,857. Mr. Ferguson ran against Rodey in 1902.

As the Record has repeatedly stated, the Democrats of the Pecos Valley have nothing to say against the natives of Spanish descent, or Mexicans, who adapt themselves to American conditions and fit themselves for citizenship. Such men as Hon. O. A. Larrazolo are as worthy citizens as Germans, French, English or any other foreigners. It is mere childishness in the Santa Fe New Mexican to assert that Pecos Valley Democrats will not support Larrazolo. Not even in Eddy county have the Democrats said anything against natives or Mexicans who become American citizens. Their only protest was against voting un-naturalized Mexicans.

TWIN WHISKERS.

Judge Nisbet has been trying for some time to induce Ira P. Wetmore to change the style of his whiskers, or cut them off entirely so that they might not be mistaken for each other. Wetmore is manager of the Republican county campaign, while Nisbet is only a humble candidate for probate judge,—but he has been wearing the Populist style of whiskers so long that he objects to the county chairman trying to gain prominence in politics at his expense. He is now satisfied that it was Wetmore's whiskers that raised him to the chairmanship, and he had no right to wear them without paying a royalty. Accordingly Judge Nisbet bought a load of hay the other day and had it sent to his barn, remarking to the man on the wagon, "You know who I am?" "Oh, yes, your name's Wetmore." Nisbet let it go at that and told the man to come to his office and get his money when he had unloaded the hay. The man seemed to know where the office was, and went to Wetmore for his money. There a row ensued in which Wetmore had a narrow escape from losing his whiskers by violence—but the man finally got his money,—and now the question which will probably be arbitrated at the next meeting of the Republican committee is which of these two men has the prior right to irrigate, arrogate, display and cultivate whiskers of a style known and described as appurtenant to and essential easements, hereditaments and remainders of the famous "Finance, Land and Transportation" platform adopted at Omaha in 1892.
